TESTIMONIALS

'We love Berkhamsted Living! We have been advertising since 2010 and believe that it has really added to our growing name and reputation in the town. It's a great magazine which is highly relevant to the local readership. Thanks everyone.'

Anna and Neil Living, Rumbles

'Complete Outdoors as a local retailer has been always been great believer in the use of quality local printed media; only this publication gives us guaranteed results. The stable of the three Living magazines have constantly produced a solid increase in sales, particularly for our Swedish winter clothing range.'

Jonathan Shirley, The Complete Outdoors

'We have worked closely with Tring Living for 4 years; our customers often comment on our adverts and our editorial entries; Tring Living has proved a must have in our advertising schedule and it's a good read too!'

Toby Murray, Beechwood Fine Foods

'The magazine is of good quality and I know people read it because of the feedback I get from my customers. This then gives me confidence to advertise in Living magazines.'

Simon Mead, PE Mead

'A nice local family-run business who are always friendly, professional and efficient to work with.'
